3. Genuine financial need
4. BLESS requires the recipient of its loan to write to BLESS an account of all other grants, stipends or other income not declared on their original application form, which they may receive before or during the period in which they are advanced the loan. BLESS reserves the right to withhold or withdraw any loan approved in view of the cumulative total received from other sources.
5. On approval of the loan, the cheques will be remitted by BLESS through BMM ..... payable to the institution / college/university. Cash or personal named cheque will not be issued.
6. The student is required to send to BMMT secretariat an account for their scholastic result at the end of each semester. Student attending universities that do not publish official transcripts are requested to obtain a written academic progress from dean. Tutor, faculty Advisor or the head of the Department. BLESS reserves the right to withdraw the loan amount approved if BMMTconsiders the academic results of a recipient to be unsatisfactory. Students are advised to communicate to the BMMT any additional concerns at the time or submitting the academic results.
7. In the event that a loan recipient fails to report as required under 2 & 3, BMMT reserves the right to request the required information directly from University authorities.
8. BLESS reserves the right to withhold or withdraw any amount loaned if BMMT receives formal notification from the Institution involved that the conduct of the recipient of the loan does not confirm to acceptable norms.
9. BLESS reserves the right to review the loan annually, if there are changes in circumstances.
10. The loan will immediately cease: a. If the Applicant discontinues his/her studies. b. If the Applicant shows any sign of dishonesty and deviation from the Muslim Shia Ithna-Ashari faith.
11. Upon completion of their courses, loan recipients are required to write to BMMT changes in their physical address or that of employer.
12. The Applicant shall be required to start paying back the loan immediately after the completion of his/her studies within 1 year.

13. This agreement shall not reduce any conditions stipulated in the student's sponsorship form.
14. Subject to Donor funding available each year BMMT will assist students to meet their education commitment by way of funding the payment of the school fee. The total amount of the loan shall be paid within 5 years after students finish their studies and shall not exceed 7 years, so as to enable other students to benefit from the said funding.
15. The Loanee must adhere to instructions provided by the lender which include joining and participating in different activities i.e. seminars, workshops, reading programs etc. The applicant should attend religious session conducted on every Sunday of the week (per Dar es Salaam Schedule) and in other regions per their schedules. The classes will be taking place at BMMT centers present in every Region Country wise.
16. There will be regular assessments and evaluations done to every applicant to check their performance in academics and tabligh activities in general.
17. The lender may stop further funding for any reason, including lack of funds to dishonesty on the part of the loanee.
